Build Financial Health, Confidence and Stability through Workshops

Veteran Community Financial Health Workshop Series

Presented by:

Financial Health Rule of Thumb: No matter where you are in life, you can always benefit from improving your financial health.

Heart of Florida United Way's MISSION UNITED has partnered with Wells Fargo to provide a 4-part workshop series for the Veteran community focusing on the key steps to financial health. This workshop series will provide tips and tools on how to take simple steps to help better manage your money today; and be able to save for long-term goals. Participants are encouraged to attend all four workshops.

The Financial Health Workshop Series Covers:

Learning new habits

From paying yourself first to tracking your spending and paying your bills on time; learning how to develop money management habits will improve your financial outlook.

Budgeting and saving

It's never too soon or too late to save, learn how to effectively manage your money to reach your financial goals by setting aside funds for the future based on your current and future financial needs.

Managing your Credit

Enhance your credit management skills by understanding how credit works and how to use credit effectively.

Protecting Your Identity

Help protect yourself by learning ways to avoid identity theft and fraud.
