

Youth Committee notes 12.10.2019

Updates:

- YAS Still needs storage space
- UpOrlando.org for career opportunities
- Covenant House starting project in Osceola
 - Community Hope Center in Valencia
- Embrace Families – Family Reunification Vouchers
 - Osceola- 25 vouchers
 - Seminole- 50 vouchers
- Catholic Foundation- 9million dollars to use throughout
- Mercy Drive Project opens December 13th
- Zebra renovated their drop-in center
- Bezo's Day 1 Family Fund

Point in Time Count

- Jan 22nd
- Youth Count Sites
- Incorporating Colleges and Universities
 - Leonard point of contact for Valencia
 - Yakia? Bell- United Way at Seminole State
 - Dr. Adrian Frain?- UCF Homeless Liaison
 - Angela Newlyn
- YAS "Come and be Counted Event," located downtown, providing essentials and food while also surveying
 - Promoted via social media and word of mouth
 - Having other young adults doing the surveys
 - Friday or Saturday, mid-day
- Trainings
- HSN will help facilitate agencies that want to host a site
- Catholic Foundation may be able to help with gathering youth volunteers

Prevention of Youth Homelessness (GLONG Project- Australia Project)

- OCPS is creating budget and looking for funding
- Interviewing youth and identifying risks and needs then connecting them to services
- OCPS facilitates questionnaire

- Catholic Charities then provide services to those that are identified as at-risk

Goals and Objectives

1. Short-term: Next 90 days
2. End of 2020
3. Long-term (3.5 yrs)